

Conditions of participation Beer Alps Competition 2024

By registering for the Beer Alps Competition, each participant recognises the following conditions of participation. In the event of a breach of one or more points of the conditions of participation, the participant may be excluded from the Beer Alps Competition and any prizes won may be forfeited.

1. Participation in the Beer Alps Competition is possible in the categories "Hobbybrauer/Home Brewers" and "Gewerbliche Brauereien/Commercial Breweries".
 - a. All hobby brewers residing in the Alpine region who do not distribute the submitted beers commercially are eligible to participate in the "Hobbybrauer/Home Brewer" category.
 - b. All breweries that produce the submitted beer in the Alpine region are eligible to participate in the "Gewerbliche Brauereien/Commercial Breweries" category.
2. In the "Gewerbliche Brauereien/Commercial Breweries" category, the beers must be commercially available for at least three months before or after the Beer Alps Competition.
3. Participants must register online at <https://competition.beeralps.com> by 16 September 2024.
4. The submitted beers must be registered for the relevant category online at <https://competition.beeralps.com> by 16 September 2024 and before the beers are submitted.
5. The amount of the registration fee depends on the number of beers submitted and the category. The amount to be paid can be viewed after registering the beers at <https://competition.beeralps.com/pay>.

The calculation is as follows:

	"Hobbybrauer/Home Brewer" gross	"Gewerbliche Brauereien/Commercial Breweries" net
Fee per beer	35€	75€
Quantity discount	From the 3rd beer onwards, €25 for each additional beer	From the 5th beer onwards, €50 for each additional beer
Maximum amount	150€	500€

The prices for hobby brewers are gross, the prices for commercial brewers are net.

- Participants must transfer the registration fee for their beers to the account specified on <https://competition.beeralps.com/pay> by 20 September 2024 or pay in cash when handing in their beers at the Stammtisch XXL on 27 September 2024. In the event of non-payment, the registered beers will be disqualified.
- After registration of the beers and payment of the participation fee, a later non-participation and thus a refund of the participation fee is no longer possible.
- The beers are tasted and assessed according to the BJCP classification criteria. Beers must be classified accordingly when registering. The participants themselves are responsible for classifying their beers accordingly; subsequent changes are not possible.
The beers of the BJCP Guidelines 2021 are permitted for the Beer Alps Competition 2024. In addition, the unofficial beer style X10 - Österreichisches Märzen, which was introduced at the Austrian Beer Challenge 2024, is also permitted.
A list of all beer styles can be found at <https://competition.beeralps.com/entry>,
- The beers will always be judged according to their BJCP category, but the organizers reserve the right to place them together with other beers if there are too few entries within a BJCP category.

10. To participate as a Hobbybrauer/Home Brewer", a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 4 liters, in at least 6 containers, of the registered beer must be submitted. To participate as a "Gewerbliche Brauereien/Commercial Brewery", a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 10 liters of the registered beer must be submitted in at least 6 containers. The beers can be submitted in bottles or cans. Submission in kegs is not possible. So-called "party kegs" will also not be accepted.
11. When registering online, all beers will receive a start number, which must be clearly visible on all bottles and cans submitted.
12. The return of empties or unused beer is excluded.
13. The submitted beers can be sent by post to the following address:

Beer Alps Competition - Matthias Röck
Bahnhofstrasse 7/3,
6175 Kematen in Tirol,
Austria

Alternatively, beers can be handed in personally at the following address only on 27 September 2024 from 12:00 to 20:00:

Tiroler Bier Halle
Egger-Lienz-Straße 3a,
6020 Innsbruck,
Austria

Beers sent in by post must arrive at the specified address by 26 September 2024 at the latest.

14. With their registration, participants confirm that all submitted beers were brewed by themselves or that they have been authorized by the producer to submit commercially brewed beers.
15. By registering, participants agree to be contacted by the organizer of the Beer Alps Competition by Email until further notice.

There may be translation errors, so the German version of the terms and conditions will always apply.
